Lord,
You are
My Rock & Shield,
I shall not want

The Virgin Mary has stretched her hand towards Heaven and the East, saying: "My Son, the Creator of all that is created, since humans overwhelmed me with their screams asking me for this incantation, come now and listen to the voice of my supplications for your believing servants, children of the Holy Baptism, and for all who asked You for help with faith, so that no jinn, fairies, bonds, talisman, clique and evil eye can overcome or harm them by the power of your Divine Might and Everlasting Glory, and by Your Holy Spirit, who overshadowed me in the village of Nazareth when the Angel Gabriel announced to me the immaculate conception without siring, and by the power that entered my womb, and mortified the jinn and the demons who did not acknowledge your Miraculous Birth, and by virtue of the miracles that you performed in Egypt where their idol statues crumble in fear of you and in reverence".

By virtue of that word you uttered in the wedding at Cana of Galilee where you transformed water to wine. By virtue of the Godly Voice that was heard from Heaven at the time of your Baptism by the hands of John in Jordan saying: "This is my Beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased, listen to Him", not to let neither humans nor jinn, male or female, nor clique, nor evil look or eye overcome the bearer of this incantation. O You who have fully satisfied with five loaves five thousands men and took up twelve baskets full of the broken pieces left over, satisfy by your providence the bearer of this incantation, safeguard him/her by your mercy, and heal him/her from illnesses and infirmities holding him/her captive. By virtue of the diversified miracles you performed on earth, and by virtue of the milk you suckled from my breasts, grant life to all who believe in You, and to You I beg asking to make my prayer acceptable to you and to listen to the voice of my supplication chasing away from Your believing servants all their enemies, visible or invisible, whether humans or jinn or clique or adversaries as you have safeguarded the Israelites and brought them out of Egypt, set free your servant, bearer of this incantation, from all infirmities and diseases and make him/her victorious over all die-hards. Safeguard him/her as you have safeguarded the three youngsters in the furnace. Safeguard him/her as you have safeguarded Daniel in the lions' den. Safeguard him/her as you have safeguarded Jonah in the belly of the whale, and as you safeguarded Noah and his family in the arc from the deluge, to you I beseech and beg not to allow the bearer of this incantations to be overcome by neither the spell of a magician, nor the bind of bondage spell, nor the evil eye of an envier and ill wisher, nor a legion from the evil spirits, drive them away from him/her defeated by virtue of your power that filled heaven and earth, and safeguard him/her from every evil and mischief that is carried out on him/her by human or jinn, and safe keep him/her from the wickedness of demons and their associates through the intercession of your martyr St. Georgius. By virtue of the Lord of Hosts; by virtue of Your Divine Light and Throne; by virtue of the Holy Trinity and the Divine Names of Its Triune Persons to drive out from your servant, who was created in Your Image and Likeness, every demon possessing him/her and being harmful to him/her.

I swear unto you, you evil spirit, commanding you neither to harm nor hurt him/her, not at night nor during the day in the Name of the Almighty God and by virtue of His Holy Angels, all the prophets, the martyrs, the clergy, the righteous men and women and all the saints that pleased Him. Be frightened O co-horts, and you the damned Satan, stay away from the servant of God, bearer of this incantation, by virtue of the Holy Gospels, the Torah, the Psalms, the Seal of Solomon, son of David, and by virtue of the Mother of God and this holy prayer, not to enter into the believing servants of God, whether men or women or children.

I swear unto you O Satan, I swear unto you O co-horts by the Eternal Word of God to come out of the servant of God, bearer of this incantation, and from his/her household and his/her children, I bind you, O damned demons, so not to harm humans who believe in God, the Supreme Creator; I implore you by His Living Name and the three hundred and eighteen fathers who convened in Nicene to set the basis of creed, by the prayer of Daniel and St. Marcellus and St. Marta and all the saints who had found their way to you and to Your Word, which you have uttered to the earth: "Be ... and it was"; flee O damned co-hort, O jinn, O fairy, O Satan from the servant of God, bearer of this incantation, you have no control over him/her anymore. Be frightened and come out fleeing from the believing servants of God and from their children O you demons and evil spirits by virtue of the Seal of Solomon, son of David, who bound you at sea. I expel you by the Holy Name of God as St. Kyprianos expelled and condemned you by the power of the splendid Cross, by the mighty word of God and by His omnipotence. And I urge you not to come near the servant of God, bear of this incantation, not at night nor during the day, not in daylight or during darkness. I beseech you, O Holy Trinity, to protect your servant and banish and expel all aspects of evil, mischief, as well as every diabolic look, affliction and distress by the intercession of the Virgin Mary and St. Saba, the Star of Wilderness, and by virtue of the honored Cross, protector of all Christians, and by virtue of the Sepulcher of Salvation, all the prophets, angels, martyrs, and all the clergy, the righteous and the saints who pleased You and have found favor with You. But you, the servant of God, go in God's speed and protection as His hand safeguard you, and His eye that does not slumber will care for you and watch over you night and day.

I swear unto you, O Satan, the evil eye ... I swear unto you, O co-hort, O evil spirit, by the name of the Almighty God, not to come near the servant of God, bearer of this incantation, as long as the Lord revives and causes death, as long as the water springs, the fire ignites and the raven is black. We have bound you with iron chains, flee and melt as the wax and lead melt ... There is no power but with God, to whom praises forever. Amen
